

Slow Food
OKLAHOMA CITY

Fall Picnic at the Harn Homestead October 7th 4-7pm

3rd Annual Slow Food Harvest Festival

Enjoy a wonderful event with something for everyone.

- Locally produced foods prepared by gourmet OK chefs
- Choc Beer by Krebs Brewery, Artisan Wines
- Opportunity to meet local food producers
- Live Music
- Activities for families such as pony rides, petting zoo, face painting, croquet and old fashioned picnic games
- Lovely historic grounds and beautiful fall weather

Sunday, October 7st 4-7pm
Harn Homestead
1721 N. Lincoln Blvd

$25 per person all inclusive if purchased by Oct 1,
$30 after Oct 1; children under 12 free

For reservations contact: slowfoodokc@yahoo.com or 440-6555

Visit our website for more information www.slowfoodokc.com

The 3rd Annual Slow Food Fall Picnic is around the corner so reserve your spot today - Sunday, October 7, 2007, Harn Homestead 4-7pm

The picnic will be a fantastic opportunity to:

- enjoy an afternoon with friends and family
- meet local food producers who are providing superior, sustainable produced foods - and make them available to you and your families too!
- spend time with the chefs in town who are using local ingredients to prepare incredible, flavorful meals
- learn more about Slow Food

Fantastic Food and Drink!

We will have gourmet “picnic” foods prepared by gourmet chefs including: Cally Johnson of Boulevard Steakhouse, Mackenzie Bentley of the Coach House, and Kamala Gamble of Kam’s Kookery. Traditional and non-traditional favorites will be prepared. We will use locally prepared, seasonal ingredients and baked goods of the highest quality. Krebs Brewing Company has generously donated their award-winning Choc beer - made with the same old recipe passed down from generation to generation that has been served at Pete’s Place in Southeast Oklahoma for many years.

Corey Bauer of Republic Beverages will be selecting the wines. We will have plenty of water, iced tea and lemonade!

If you’ve been to an event before you know we always have great food to eat and plenty of it! If you’ve never been – this is the event to attend.

Meet Local Food Producers

Several local food producers have generously offered to be on hand for the event. You will have the opportunity to learn more about them and their operations as well as place orders for their products for future delivery. Representatives from NoName Ranch, Wichita Buffalo, Cattle Tracks, Horn Family Farm, Wagon Creek Creamery and many others will be on hand. Representatives from the Oklahoma Food Coop, Sustainable OKC, OK Farm to School and the YWCA McFarland Youth Gardens will be on at the picnic as well.

Enjoy Live Music

Buck Goucher will be entertaining the Slow Food crowd with his music – he can sing a vast array of Johnny Cash and other country legends perfectly. He was a real hit last year and he’ll be back again this year.

Family Activities - Picnic Games, Pony Rides, Petting Zoo and Face Painting

Pony Rides, a petting Zoo and a barrel train will be on hand for the little ones, traditional picnic games (sack races, etc), croquet and horseshoes will also be available for adults and kids alike. A face painter will be available to decorate faces and hands. Elia Woods, local artist, will lead children in an art project. If you prefer to just enjoy the early fall afternoon, you may stroll the grounds, bring a blanket and sit or enjoy our provided outdoor and indoor tables.

Reserve a spot for yourself and your friends and family today! Prices are $25 per person, all inclusive, with children 12 and under free if reserved before October 1st–$30 per person after October 1. Advance payment is requested. Contact us at slowfoodokc@yahoo.com or Cristina McQuiston at 440-6555.

Harn Homestead is located at 1721 N Lincoln (new entrance off Lincoln) in OKC near the Capitol. Parking is easy and free.