

COMPOST MAKES $ENSE

The Oklahoma Compost Conference

October 28, 2015

Cleveland County Fairgrounds, Norman, Oklahoma

Registration

[okcompostconference.
eventbrite.com](http://okcompostconference.eventbrite.com)

Early Bird Special (deadline Oct. 1st)
$45

Late Registration $65

Students $25

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE!

Registration covers the cost of food, facilities, and educational materials

For More Information Please Contact

jwise@minickmaterials.com
terry@fertilegroundokc.com

The Oklahoma Compost Conference is aimed at expanding diversion, production, and application of compost and compostable feedstocks throughout the state. This one day conference will be useful for:

- Municipal, county, state, and tribal government agencies
- Municipal or tribal compost facilities
- Commercial compost facilities
- Engineering, architectural and development firms
- Landscape companies

Programming Highlights

- Compost for Erosion Control
- Soil Health and Water Conservation
- Compost Success Stories
- Exhibitors and Sponsors from the compost industry
- Networking Opportunities
- Continuing Education Credits Available

Sponsorship Opportunities

Silver Level—$250

Includes Exhibitor Booth, listed on printed materials, and one Conference Registration

Gold Level—$500

Includes Exhibitor Booth, logo displayed on printed materials, and two Conference Registrations

Platinum Level —$1000

Includes prominent logo display, Premium Exhibitor Booth Location, acknowledgement in public announcements, and three Conference Registrations

Additional sponsor passes - $25/each

 Non-profit organizations may apply for free display space with paid conference registrations ***